TO THE MOANA

The Victoria (B. C.) Colonist says:

Work on the steamer Moana at the Esquimalt marine ways, is expected to commence today. The coffer dam, which has been built by the Esquimalt company for the work of repairing the steamer owing to the fact that she was unable to secure the dock as a result of the injuries to the cruiser Flora, has been fitted to the damaged stern of the liner, and yesterday the repair crew were at work pumping out the big coffer dam with the steam wrecking pumps on board the wrecker, Isa-The coffer dam is a novel contrivance, a large wooden box like the four walls of a house, only very much stronger than the ordinary house. On one side a place is cut away to fit the stern part of the steamer, and when the coffer dam was sunk at the stern of the vessel, and fitted to the liner, it was well ballasted, and then the pumps were set at work to dry it. It is expected to be dry this morning and then the workmen will go down into the coffer dam to effect the necessary repairs to the rudder post, propeller and shoe of the liner, which were damaged as a result of striking the rocks at William Head on her arrival three weeks ago. \The suction and pressure of the water against the coffer dam will keep it in position against the stern of the vessel, and while the remainder of the steamer will be moored alongside the marine slip, with the coal shifted forward to bring the steamer down by the head, the stern will be dry in the coffer dam made by the Esquimalt Marine railway. It is expected that the staff will effect the repairs that are necessary to the vessel in twenty-five days, at a cost of not far short of fifteen thousand dol-quimalt, the doctor had a narrow esape from being severely burned and as it was he had his whiskers badly singed. He had fallen asleep and left a spirit lamp burning. This fell over and set fire to the cabin, the interior fittings and contents being burned as a result.

Orew of the Bement,

It is not known whether or not any one from Honolylu was on the American ship Clarence S. Bement, which burned at sea off Cape Horn. The ship arrived here from Yokohama on February 2, 1903, and twenty-three men were discharged. On February 28, twenty-two men were shipped for New York. This crew was probably discharged at Philadelphia or New York, and it is not believed that any of the DER'S STEAMSHIP CO. will dispatch Honolulu crew had shipped for the Bement's last fatal voyage. Among those shipped here were R. R. Grimley as mate, J. V. Marshall as second mate, and one Lewis as carpenter.

Andremeds on the Way.

The Norwegian bark Andromeda, which, was purchased at this port last year by the Chas. Nelson Co., of San Francisco, after she had arrived here dismasted, is now out forty-seven days from Newcastle with a cargo of coal consigned to the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, She is now in TWO furnished rooms. Inquire 1704 command of Captain Ramsilius, well known in the coal trade.

This vessel was permitted, after receiving a jury rig here, to proceed under temporary register to Eureka, California, where she underwent permanent repairs, at which time she also received the American flag.

The Ada's Expedition.

Waterfronters are beginning to speculate on the result of Captain Weisbarth's wrecking expedition to the French Frigate Shoals. The captain on departing a few weeks ago stated that he did not believe he would have any difficulty in raising the wreck of the French bark Connetable de Richemont, and that it would be a matter of but a very short time to perform this SIX-ROOM MODERN COTTAGE in work. Shipping men expect to see good location, nearly new. Price, the Ada here in about three weeks. $2900. Cash $300; installment of $30 per

-+-New Crew at Eleele.

The American ship Henry Villard, now discharging at Eleele, will take a new crew at that port when all the cargo is out. The New York crew will receive its discharge at that time and will be sent to Honolulu. A new crew will be shipped here and sent on a steamer to Eleele.

Shipping Notes.

Scott Likes Honolulu,

Captain Scott of the British ship Netherby has been in port five days and will probably sail for the Sound next week. He deplores the fact that he can remain here for so short a time, as he is already a great admirer of the place. "Honolulu is a fine city and has a fine climate," said he. "I only wish that my vessel could remain here three months. This is my first visit to Honolulu and I hope it won't be the
